

Introduction

Introduction

Purpose of the Prophecy

- It is God's zealous relationship with Israel and His plan to restore them.
- It is a primary example of God's sovereignty and man's will used to accomplish God's will and execute judgment.
- It results in God being glorified.

Introduction

God in no way violated their freedom to think and decide, but He overruled Gog's decisions for His own purposes just as He did with Babylon (Ez 21:18-24).

- Wiersbe

The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, like the rivers of water; He turns it wherever He wishes.

Psalm 8:1-9

Vv 21-24 God's Glory Among the Nations

“In that day of restoration, dwelling securely in their land, they would still bear their shame, that is to say, repentance for past failure would be profound, even in the day of restoration. By that attitude of mind Jehovah would be sanctified among them in the sight of the nations, but they would have the infinite healing of His unveiled face, and the abiding energy of His outpoured Spirit.”
